

Assets in Action Community Award nominations open until December 17

January 1, 2013

The screenshot shows the Los Alamos National Laboratory website. At the top is the lab's logo. Below it is a search bar. The main content area features a 'Connections Newsletter' header with a blue and white pixelated background. Below the header is a navigation bar with links: COMMUNITY GIVING, ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, EDUCATION, CALENDAR, OTHER, and ENVIRONMENT. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column has a section titled 'At the Intersection of Past and Future—The Lab's Archives' with a paragraph about the lab's archives and a 'Read more' link. Below this is a 'COMMUNITY GIVING' section with a sub-header 'New Record for Employee Giving Campaign' and a paragraph about the lab's annual employee giving campaign. The right column has a section titled 'Kurt's Column' with a photo of Kurt and a paragraph about the lab's culture of giving. Below this is a 'RELATED LINKS' section with a list of links. At the bottom of the page is a large blue banner with the text 'Connections Archive 02/2010 - 2/2013'.

If you know people who support building a strong community for youth in Los Alamos, you have until December 17 to nominate them for an Assets in Action Community Award. Nominees do not have to live in Los Alamos County.

"You can recognize good deeds via the web in just a few minutes," said Assets in Action Coordinator Bernadette Lauritzen. "You can submit a nomination to recognize the people, groups, and businesses that are contributing to building a strong community for our youth and for all of us. There is no limit to the number of nominations people can make."

Award winners and nominees will be celebrated at an event on Saturday, January 5 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m at the Betty Ehart Senior Center in Los Alamos. If you would like to attend the ceremony, the $10 tickets must be obtained in advance by calling (505) 661-4846.
